Dr. Jason Bosch serves as leadership developer for the Kansas Leadership Center. In this role, he teaches, trains, and facilitates in KLC's core and custom programs. As a fourth generation Kansan, Bosch is passionate about helping individuals, organizations, and communities elevate their capacity to exercise leadership on the challenges that matter to them most. Prior to joining KLC, Bosch spent 17 years working professionally in higher education. Bosch has more than 15 years of experience in leadership training, teaching, and coaching in higher education, business, and nonprofit settings. Bosch has a bachelor's degree in sociology from Wichita State University, a master's degree in higher education leadership from the University of Arkansas, and a doctoral degree in educational leadership from Wichita State University. He also holds the Associate Certified Coach credential from the International Coaching Federation.
